POLICY

In order to ensure all students receive an engaging, enjoyable and rewarding learning experience, it is necessary to outline the standards of behaviour expected by Benchmark College students and define what constitutes 'misconduct' requiring intervention by the College. Processes and systems are required to be transparent, robust, fair and equitable and compliant with relevant legislation and regulations.

The guidelines contained within this policy are articulated to the students through enrolment and induction processes and reinforced through the duration of their training and assessment. Any confirmed breach of the code of conduct will lead to formal disciplinary procedures and depending on the severity of the incident possible suspension or expulsion from the College.

Staff Responsibilities

Benchmark College acknowledge a responsibility of their staff to:

- Objectively investigate any allegations of misconduct
- Inform all students of expectations related to behaviour
- Explain to students what constitutes behaviour misconduct
- Model exemplary behaviour and act as a benchmark for students and other staff
- Supervise student behaviour and the behaviour of other staff
- Promote a positive environment that supports a student's individual personality whilst setting clear boundaries relating to acceptable behaviour
- Respond immediately to observed behaviour misconduct to maintain a safe environment for staff and students and to protect the rights of individuals or groups
- If the observed behaviour misconduct is serious in nature, the staff member may suspend the students continued participation in training and assessment activities (training sessions, assessment, study sessions, lab sessions, field activities, etc.)
- Communicate and escalate issues of concern to the Training Manager
- Report (in writing) behaviour misconduct when it is observed, and actions taken in the immediate response
- Ensure students understand their rights of appeal.

PROCEDURES

Provision of Information

The Benchmark College Student Handbook is made available to upon the commencement of their course. This information is distributed at the time of enrolment and can also be found in the student section of the website.

Expectations are discussed at the student's program induction. Students are required at this time to read the Student Handbook regarding abiding by the expectations outlined within the document. Copies of the Student Handbook are available from the College website and may be provided to host employers where required for work practicum.

Procedures for Managing Misconduct

The Training Manager may, in respect of any behaviour or misconduct by a student:

- Meet with that student to discuss the breach and clarify the student's rights and responsibilities, the College expectations and the potential impact of the breach. Students are encouraged to invite a support person to any meeting regarding a breach of misconduct (e.g. parent, friend etc.)
- Depending on the type and seriousness of the student's misconduct, develop a learning contract outlining specific actions/requirements
- For serious misconduct, immediately suspend the student for a period not exceeding fourteen (14) days, as may be determined, pending investigation of the breach. (Note: The Training Manager may allow the Student to continue their studies and assignments off campus for the duration of the suspension)
- Where State or Commonwealth laws appear to have been breached, the matter will be referred to the police or other appropriate authority.
- Advise the student in writing of the alleged incident of misconduct and that they have fourteen (14) working days to make oral or written representations regarding the alleged incident of misconduct. Impose one or more of the following behavioural management strategies:
 - Reprimand and warn (formal warning in writing) the student against repetition of the misconduct;
 - Suspend the student from using all or some College facilities and / or services for a designated period of time;
 - Instigate a behavioural management contract with the student including agreed monitoring arrangements and consequences based on repetition of the misconduct;
 - Cancel the student's enrolment (serious misconduct involving violence to others, damage to property or breach of State or Commonwealth law).
- The student is provided a written statement detailing the decision, including information on their right to appeal the decision.
- A contemporaneous documentation of events will be recorded on the College's Student Management System.

Fees and Refunds

Students who commits behavioural misconduct after being formally warned will have their enrolment cancelled and will not be entitled to a refund. This does not limit the requirement to provide the student suitable warning in writing, the opportunity to make oral or written representations regarding the misconduct or their right to appeal a decision.
